

The Federation of Nettlestone & Newchurch Primary Schools

Governing Body Information - September 2017

What Do Governors Do?

The role of the governing body is a strategic one, its key functions are to:

- set the aims and objectives for the school
- set the policies for achieving those aims and objectives
- set the targets for achieving those aims and objectives
- monitor and evaluate the progress the school is making towards achievement of its aims and objectives
- be a source of challenge and support to the headteacher (a critical friend)

Every governing body has a clerk whose role is to provide administrative support and advice on governance, constitutional and procedural matters.

Governors at the Federation of Nettlestone & Newchurch Primary Schools

The Federation of Nettlestone & Newchurch Primary Schools has one governing body overseeing the strategic direction of the Federation. The Governing Body meets once a term and all governors also sit on either one or both of the Leadership & Management Committee and the Attainment & Standards Committee:

Committee	Achievement & Standards	Leadership & Management
General Remit	All achievement and standards matters, which can, legally, be delegated from the full Governing Body	All financial matters which can, legally, be delegated from the full Governing Body.
Chair	Ian Watterson	Michelle Martin
Membership	Three of the total membership will constitute a quorum. In the event of a tied vote, the Chair may exercise a casting vote.	Three of the total membership will constitute a quorum. In the event of a tied vote, the Chair may exercise a casting vote.
Frequency of meetings	The Committee will meet three times per academic year and will hold additional meetings as are necessary.	The Committee will meet at least once each term and will hold additional meetings as are necessary.

Governors also play a key role in monitoring by visiting the school, analysing school performance data, talking to staff and talking to pupils.

The Governors at the Federation of Nettlestone & Newchurch Primary Schools are listed below.

If you are interested in becoming a Governor, please contact the Clerk, Donna Rossall, by email to clerk@newchurchprimaryschool.co.uk or by letter c/o Nettlestone or Newchurch Primary School.
