

Newchurchian News

Welcome to the first edition of the Newchurchian News (our school e-magazine). Every fortnight we will upload a magazine on the school website. It will include things we have done throughout the two weeks. We include lots of fun activities in our magazines and prizes to win! This is the first magazine we have created so we all hope you enjoy it. This week's magazine includes an interview, a word search, a true or false challenge and lots more! We have all spent lots of time and effort making this magazine; we wanted to create a fun and enjoyable children's magazine so its not just for adults. We wanted our peers to have fun challenges to do! Mrs Newton organised this club- she just supervises it so everything is written and drawn by us! We have written names underneath our parts so we know who has done what! Every fortnight we will choose an editor. This week it is me (Mimi.S). The editor tells people what to do and what to include. They also write the in introduction. I hope you enjoy the magazine and we look forward to giving out prizes it will tell you where to enter them good luck.

Enjoy!

On Thursday 26th of September, myself and Molly.R interviewed well-known teacher Miss Cottee; together we asked her multiple questions to do with in school/out of school. Here are the question as well as the answers.

Q1: Why did you name your class Turtle Class?

A: The main focus of this year is endangered animals and a turtle is one surprisingly. A turtle is one of my favourite animals so it fits in perfectly with this topic !

Q2:Why did you become a Teacher ?

A:Mum and Dad were teachers when I was younger which inspired me to do what I do now.

Q3:How long do you plan teaching at Newchurch?

A: For the rest of my rest of my life!

Q4:Who do you want to be your teaching assistant for 2020-2021?

A:Mrs Hughes and Mrs Dempsey !

Q5: Which school do you like best?

A:I enjoyed both experiences but Newchurch has a better pupil voice !"

Sorry Mrs Cottee for exposing you !

Football report by Mimi and Theo

True or false?

One day, Edward decided to swing on his chair even though the teacher had asked him not to ; he knew what he was doing was wrong but he did it anyway. He thought that he would just be a rebel and then he would go home; little did he know the chair had a different plan...

The next day, when he walked in the teacher gave him an angry glare. She handed him his books and told him to go to the Head Teacher's office. On the way down Edward looked through all of his books, but what he saw shocked him to his very core. All of the work in his books had disappeared. Upstairs his chair sat undisturbed as if it had never moved.

This week has been exciting for year six because they have been to the wonderful place of UKSA. It has lot of water activities to do. Anyway, they have been sailing the seas with their instructors, Claire, Rebecca, Chris, and Euan. First they were split into two groups, one of eight and one of twenty-one. They took their boats out to sea and went sailing! "A fantastic experience but very cold," was a quote from Martha C. Charlie W says "We had an overpowered boat which was hard to control,". Rafe's boat nearly capsized and so did Hugh's. Some people got wet and some people didn't. It was very wet.

Overall , the Year 6s had a really great time at UKSA. Visit their website at <https://uksa.org/> for more information. By Ted L
