

Key Questions

Fossils, geological time and classification

- I can recognise that living things have changed over time and that fossils provide information about living things that inhabited the Earth millions of years ago.
- I can describe how living things are classified into broad groups according to common observable characteristics and based on similarities and differences including micro -organisms, plants and animals.
- I can give reasons for classifying plants and animals based on specific characteristics.

Title:
Class: Duffy

Hook
Visit to Haven Street
Railway

Values

This term the following values will underpin our learning in school (term 1):

- quality,
- democracy
- appreciation

Key Questions – History

- I know and can place features of historical events and people from past societies and periods in a chronological framework.
- I know and can appreciate that significant events in history have helped shape the country (Island) we have today. (significance; change and continuity; cause and consequence).
- I can use historical artefacts to understand and interpret British lives in the past.

As a parent, you can: Encourage your child to practise their Year 5 & 6 common exception words and read with them during the week.
Please ensure PE kit is in school: Monday and Friday of each week.