

I have taken part in school discussions and activities about being safe when it's dark - Be Bright, Be Seen.

I worked really hard to sew my own felt poppy to wear as part of the Remembrance Day celebrations. I focused on being responsible for my own learning and progress by challenging myself and completing booster work when needed.

I learned about local history linked to our WWII topic and produced a memorial to a fallen soldier from Newchurch.

I visited the Military Museum and learned what life was like for an evacuee during WWII.
