- Is open, honest and transparent about how it retains and processes the data of each individual
- Protects itself from the risks of a data breach.

Legislation and guidance

This policy meets the requirements of the Data Protection Act 1998, and is based on guidance published by the Information Commissioner's Office and model privacy notices published by the Department for Education.

It also takes into account the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation, that came into force on the 25th May 2018.

In addition, this policy complies with regulation 5 of the Education (Pupil Information) (England) Regulations 2005, which gives parents the right of access to their child's educational record.

The data controller

The Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School processes personal information relating to pupils, staff and visitors, and, therefore, is a data controller. It is the responsibility of the data controller to 'implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure and to be able to demonstrate that processing is performed in accordance with the regulation'.

Each school is registered as a data controller with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) and renews this registration annually.

The Isle of Wight Council act as the Data Protection Officer (DPO) for the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary Schools. The DPO must 'have due regard to the risk associated with the processing operations, taking into account the nature, scope, context and purposes of the processing.'

Data protection principles

The Data Protection Act 1998 is based on the following data protection principles, or rules for good data handling:

- Data shall be processed fairly and lawfully
- Personal data shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purposes
- Personal data shall be relevant and not excessive in relation to the purpose(s) for which it is processed
- Personal data shall be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date
- Personal data shall not be kept for longer than is necessary for the purpose(s) for which it is processed
- Personal data shall be processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects under the Data Protection Act 1998
- Appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data, and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, personal data
- Personal data shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area unless the country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of data in relation to the processing of personal data

Roles and responsibilities

Everyone who works with the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary Schools has some responsibility for ensuring data is collected, stored and handled appropriately.

Everyone that handles personal data must ensure that it is handled and processed in line with this policy and data protection principles.

However, the following have key responsibilities:

- The Governing Body is ultimately responsible for ensuring the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School meets its legal obligations.
- The Executive Headteacher working alongside the nominated Data Officer who is presently Hannah Berners is responsible for:
  - ✓ Keeping the Governing Body and staff updated about data protection responsibilities, risks and issues.
  - ✓ Reviewing all data protection procedures and related policies, in line with an agreed schedule
  - ✓ Arranging Data protection training and advice for all covered by this policy, if required or requested.
  - ✓ Managing data protection questions from staff and anyone else covered by this policy
  - ✓ Dealing with requests from individuals to see the data that the Federation holds about them (subject access requests)
  - ✓ Checking and approving contracts or agreements with third parties that may handle the company's sensitive data
  - ✓ Ensuring all systems, services and equipment used for storing data meet acceptable security standards
  - ✓ Performing regular checks and scans to ensure security hardware and software is functioning properly
  - ✓ Evaluating any third party services that the Federation is considering using to store or process data. For instance, cloud based computing services.
  - ✓ Approving any data protection statements attached to communications such as emails and letters
  - ✓ Addressing any data protection queries from journalists or media outlets in line with Local Authority legal guidance
  - ✓ Notify where feasible within 72 hours the ICO of any 'high risk' data breach. A reasoned justification must be provided if this timeframe is not met. The data controller must also notify the affected data subjects without undue delay.

General Staff Guidelines:

- The only people able to access data covered by this policy should be those who need it for their work.
- Data should not be shared informally. When access to confidential information is required, employees can request it from their line managers
- The Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School will provide training for all employees to help them understand their responsibilities when handling data when required or requested.
- Employees should keep all data secure, by taking sensible precautions and following the guidelines illustrated within the policy.
- In particular, strong passwords must be used and they should never be shared.
- Personal data should not be disclosed to unauthorised people, either within the Federation or externally.
- Data should be regularly reviewed and updated if it is found to be out of date. If no longer required, it should be deleted and disposed of in line with our record management policy

- Employees should request help from their line manager or the data protection controller or officer if they are unsure about any aspect of data protection.
- Data processors will have direct legal obligations and responsibilities, which means that processors can be held liable for data breaches.
- When no longer needed, inaccurate or out of date, data will be disposed of securely as per our records management policy.

Consent:

A data subject's consent to processing of their personal data must be freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous.

- Parental consent is required for the processing of personal data of children under the age of 16. Parental consent is not required in the context of preventative or counselling services offered directly to a child, including where they may be at risk of harm e.g. to Police or Children's Services.
- Consent should be explained in simple terms. Silence or inactivity does not constitute consent. Clear and affirmative consent to the processing of private data must be provided.
- Consent must be explicit for sensitive data. The data controller is required to demonstrate that consent was given. Existing consents still work, provided they meet conditions of the new regulation.
- Parents have the right to withdraw consent to the collection, processing and transfer of personal information for a specific purpose. They have the right to withdraw at any time. Upon written notification of the withdrawal the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch will no longer process information for that individual for the purposes that were originally agreed to, unless there is another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

Data Storage:

These rules describe how and where data should be safely stored. Questions about storing data safely can be directed to Wight Support or the data controller.

When data is stored on paper, it should be kept in a secure place where unauthorised people cannot see it.

These guidelines also apply to data that is usually stored electronically but may have been printed out for some reason:

- When not required, the paper or files should be kept in a locked drawer or filing cabinet.
- Employees should make sure paper and printouts are not left where unauthorised people could see them, like on a printer.
- Data printouts should be shredded and disposed of securely when no longer required.
- When data is stored electronically, it must be protected from unauthorised access, accidental deletion and malicious hacking attempts:
- Data should be protected by strong passwords that are changed regularly and never shared between employees - ideally 8 characters long and containing letters and numbers.
- If data is stored on removable media (like a CD, DVD or USB stick), these should be kept locked away securely when not being used and be encrypted with appropriate software.
- Data should only be stored on designated drives and servers, and should only be uploaded to an approved cloud computing services.

- Servers containing personal data should be sited in a secure location, away from general office space.
- Data should be backed up frequently. Those backups should be tested regularly, in line with the company's standard backup procedures.
- Data should never be saved directly to laptops or other mobile devices like tablets or smart phones.
- All servers and computers containing data should be protected by approved security software and a firewall.
- A risk-based approach must be adopted before undertaking higher-risk data processing activities. Data controllers are required to conduct privacy impact assessments where privacy breach risks are high to analyse and minimise the risks to their data subjects.

Data use:

Personal data is of no value to the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School unless the staff can make use of it. However, it is when personal data is accessed and used that it can be at the greatest risk of loss, corruption or theft:

- When working with personal data, employees should ensure the screens of their computers are always locked when left unattended.
- Personal data should not be shared informally. In particular, it should never be sent by email, as this form of communication is not secure.
- Data must be encrypted before being transferred electronically. Wight Support can explain how to send data to authorised external contacts e.g. by password protection
- Personal data should never be transferred outside of the European Economic Area.
- Employees should not save copies of personal data to their own computers and always access and update the central copy of any data.

Data accuracy:

The law requires The Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School to take reasonable steps to ensure data is kept accurate and up to date.

It is the responsibility of all employees who work with data to take reasonable steps to ensure it is kept as accurate and up to date as possible.

- Data will be held in as few places as necessary. Staff should not create any unnecessary additional data sets.
- Staff should take every opportunity to ensure data is updated. For instance, by confirming a parent's details when they call.
- The Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch will make it easy for data subjects to update the information that each school holds about them. For instance, via the new app - Parent Lite App from Capita.
- Data should be updated as inaccuracies are discovered. For instance, if a governor can no longer be reached on their stored telephone number, it should be removed from the database.
- The amount of personally identifiable information should be reduced to a minimum and ensure that it is not stored for any longer than is necessary. Data privacy encompasses other factors that could be used to identify an individual, such as their genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity.

User Rights:

- Data controllers must inform and remind users of their rights, as well as documenting the fact that they have reminded them of their rights. By law each user has the right to:
  - Request access to their personal information (commonly known as a subject access request). This enables the user to receive a copy of the personal information that is held about them within the Federation to check that staff are lawfully processing it.
  - Request correction of their personal information. This enables the user to have any complete or incomplete or inaccurate information held by the Federation corrected.
  - Request erasure of their personal information. This enables the user to ask the Federation to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason to continue to process it.
  - Object to processing of their personal information where the Federation is relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about the user's particular situation which makes them want to object to processing on this ground.
  - Request the restriction of processing of their personal information. This enables the user to ask the Federation to suspend the processing of personal information about them, for example should the user want the Federation to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.
  - Request the transfer of your information to another party.
- Users should not have to opt-out of their data being used, they must opt-in our systems.
- Data portability allows a user to request a copy of their personal data in a format usable by them and electronically transmissible to another processing system. Should a user wish to review, verify, correct or request erasure of their personal information, object to processing of their personal data or request that the Federation transfer a copy of their personal information to another party a request in writing should be made to the Executive Headteacher.
- Users will not usually have to pay a fee to access their personal information (subject access request) – The data controller will aim to provide the relevant data within 14 working days but this could take up to a month or two.

Subject Access Requests

- Individuals should include the following information when making subject access requests.
  - ✓ full name, address, contact telephone number and email address;
  - ✓ any information used by the Federation to identify or distinguish the individual from others of the same name (account numbers, unique ID's etc);
  - ✓ details of the specific information required and any relevant dates

The data controller will always verify the identity of anyone making a subject access request before handing over any information.

The Federation will provide the information requested in writing where possible, unless it takes 'disproportionate effort' or if the individual agrees to some other form, such as seeing it on screen.

The Federation will provide any personal information that is held about an individual following the principles of the ICO Subject Access Code of Practice.

Parents requesting information about children:

Information about children may be released to a person with parental responsibility. However, the best interests of the child will always be considered.

Even if a child is very young, data about them is still their personal data and does not belong to anyone else. It is the child who has a right of access to the information held about them.

Before responding to a request for information held about a child, the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School will consider whether the child is mature enough to understand their rights. If the Federation is confident that the child can understand their rights, then it will respond to the child rather than the parent. What matters is that the child is able to understand (in broad terms) what it means to make a subject access request and how to interpret the information they receive as a result of doing so.

Can personal information be accessed on someone else's behalf?

The Data Protection Act allows a request to be made on someone else's behalf. This is often necessary for a solicitor acting on behalf of a client, or it could simply be that an individual would like someone else to act for them.

In these cases, the Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School will need to satisfy itself that the third party making the request has the individual's permission to act on their behalf. It is the third party's responsibility to provide this evidence, which could be a written authority to make the request, or a power of attorney.

If a person does not have the mental capacity to manage their own affairs and the third party is their attorney, they will have the right to access information about the person they are representing to help them to carry out the role. The same applies to a person appointed to make decisions about such matters:

- In England and Wales, by the Court of Protection;
- In Scotland, by the Sheriff Court; and
- In Northern Ireland, by the High Court (Office of Care and Protection).

Disclosing data for other reasons:

In certain circumstances, the Data Protection Act allows personal data to be disclosed to law enforcement agencies without the consent of the data subject.

Under these circumstances, The Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School will disclose requested data. However, the data controller will ensure the request is legitimate, seeking assistance from the Local Authority and from the Federation's legal advisers where necessary.

Providing Information:

The Federation of Nettlestone and Newchurch Primary School aims to ensure that individuals are aware that their data is being processed, and that they understand:

- How the data is being used
- How to exercise their rights

To these ends, the Federation has a privacy statement, setting out how data relating to individuals is used by the Federation (see appendix A). This will be issued to parents upon pupil admission to school and annually thereafter.

A similar privacy statement will be issued to staff upon appointment to the Federation and reviewed as part of the September induction process each year (see appendix B).

Monitoring arrangements

The Governing Body is responsible for monitoring and reviewing this policy.

The Executive Headteacher and Data Officer will check that the school complies with this policy by, among other things, reviewing school records annually.

This document will be reviewed when the General Data Protection Regulation comes into force, and then every 2 years.

At every review, the policy will be shared with the governing board.
